

Job Title: ProgrammerLocation: Portland, Oregon*Summary

Springbrook Software builds, sells, installs, and supports fund based accounting software for local government and non-profit organizations. As a Programmer, you will maintain software in accordance with company policy and procedures in support of client business operations.

Responsibilities

- Modifies and creates customer reports and billing statements
- Resolves minor to moderate defects with the guidance of senior programmers and analysts
- Performs minor application enhancements with assistance from senior programmers and analysts
- Documents work product to department standards
- Estimates time to completion on units of programming work
- Mentors employees on job duties

Technical Qualifications

- Required: Professional experience with Visual Studio, C#, .Net, PVCS, Visual Studio Team System, Progress, Crystal Reports, and WinForms applications
- Experience working on accounting applications or knowledge of accounting principles and practices

Personal Qualifications

- Possesses technical aptitude
- Ability to work both independently and as part of a team
- Possesses effective written and verbal communication skills
- Strong customer service skills
- Ability to work from specifications
- Willing to seek advice when appropriate
- Ability to multitask and manage several separate projects concurrently
- Shows proficiency in all programming tools, languages and technologies that are used within the company
- Willingness to continue to learn as technologies change
- Ability to use intuition and logic to solve problems

Education Requirements

- Bachelor of Science degree in related area or equivalent work experience

Work Hours

- Members of the programming team are salaried (exempt) employees and are expected to perform at least 40 hours of work per week. Specific hours are work driven and may require after-hours and weekend work at the request of the supervisor.